ACTIVITY WING

❖ Tiny Earth Designer's Competition: Nursery

On 30th April 2026 our nursery wing turned into a mini green planet as tiny tots celebrated the Earth day with a joyful dress-up competition. The theme was simple – save earth, go green, recycle, no stress, just creativity-even a small leaf counted! The school corridors bloomed with tiny eco warriors spreading smiles and a big message: Love your Planet.

❖ ENGLISH RECITATION COMPETITION ON 30TH & 31ST JULY 2026: NURSERY, LKG

Our school organized an English Recitation Competition for the students of Nursery and LKG on 30th and 31st July 2026 in the school activity hall. The main aim of the competition was to build confidence, improve speaking skills, and encourage children to express themselves through poem recitation. The tiny participants came dressed beautifully in their school uniforms and looked very confident. Each child recited a new poem other than those from the school book. The students performed with proper actions, clear pronunciation, and loud voices. Some poems were on nature, some on patriotism, and some on social messages. The little speakers also gave an impressive introduction about themselves and their poems before reciting. The judges appreciated the efforts of all the children. The auditorium was filled with clapping and cheers as every child performed with great energy and expressions. The competition not only improved their speaking skills but also gave them a platform to overcome stage fear and overall development of children.
